Horger

In the 1810 Census, there were listed Caty Hurger, G. Hurger, J. Hurger, Jn. Hurger, and Has Huzer. There were enough children listed, with date-spreads of ages such that it is impossible to determine much.

In the 1820 Census, Jacob Hurger (II?) was shown as a male over 45 with two males 16-26. No others listed except one each boy and girl under 10 and no other listings of families. These dates do not check out exactly but there seems to be a general confusion of dates.

In the 1830 Census of Orangeburg, only David Horger and his family were listed, he was shown as born 1780-90. I do not have the 1840 Census record, but the 1850 Census shows David Horger b. about 1787 with among others, son, Jacob, b. about 1832 and son, David, b. about 1834.

I have many other notes of interest regarding this family but have concentrated only on Jacobs.

The evidence I have that Jacob II had a son Jacob III, is in the form of a deed, State of Carolina, Orangeburg Dist., 10 Aug. 1807, signed by Jacob Horger Senr. (II) who lists his sons, Jacob and David and his father Jacob Horger. He also mentioned John Horger in such a manner as to indicate that he was his brother or uncle.

I have the following notes unexplained further: "Jacob Horger, executor of "Last will and Testament of Jacob Horger," deceased listing heirs: Adam Ulmer and wife Mary; Mathias Brickles and wife Catherine (who are they?); Conrad Honkey and Rachael, his wife; John Cox & Louisa, his wife; David Horger, all of Orangeburg Dist. No date shown, but assumed to be Orangeburg. Note this list in comparison with the previous list of living relatives and it appears that this is Jacob, II, since the Cox and Ulmer names appear. The Morley and Honkey connections must have been others who were no longer living in 1845. Jacob III was not included and may have been left out because of previous settlement the fact that he was away from Orangeburg, or estranged family relations who knows? He did get a land settlement in 1810 noted above.

HORGER

Henry Horger, Sr. came from the Canton Zürich, Switzerland, died Feb. 14, 1760, age about 89 years (born about 1671), Orangeburg District, S.C. Name of wife is unknown. His children were: Henry, Jr., Anna Catherine, Jacob (I) John, Peter, Barbara, Catherine, Magdalene.

The Orangeburg District, S.C. 1790 Census shows: Henry (Jr.), John, Jacob, Jr. (II), and Jacob, Sr. (I).

D.A.R. Volume 96, p. 101 shows Jacob Horger, 1725-1800, Pvt. in Capt. Jacob Rumph's Co., Orangeburg District, S.C. born in Switzerland, d. Orangeburg Dist., S.C., m. Louisa Shaumlöffel. N.C. and S.C. Marriage Records," by Clemens shows the marriage as in 1740.

Salley's "The History of Orangeburg Co." shows many misc. records, including primarily items regarding Henry Horger and his children.

Faust's "List of Swiss Emigrants in the 18th Century to the American Colonies" includes information on this family.

John Shaumlöffel and his wife landed at Charleston, S.C. from Germany about the year 1716, one hundred and thirty years ago (this is extracted from a record made in 1846), had seven daughters and no sons. One of them, Lovey (also spelled Lovisia), Shaumlöffel married Jacob Horger (I) a German (Swiss) our grandfather and grandmother. They married about 1746 (1740) or about one hundred years ago. Their children were: 1. Magdalene, etc. 2. Jacob (II) eldest son of our grandparents, has three children living children, in 1846; Polly Ulmer, eldest daughter lives in Jasper Co., Miss.; David Horger lives in Orangeburg Dist., S.C. Lovey, Louisa Cox lives in Lumbard Co., Miss. (Note that this mentions only the living children, in 1846, and that Jacob III would be dead by this time, therefore.) (Six other children, with the living offspring listed.)

"John Horger", executor of the will of Jacob Horger 1810,
I have this as a separate note, but it might have been connected with the above.

Now I will switch to my own known data, known to be connected,
and try to correlate it with the above.

Leon Co., Florida, had records of conveyances to Jacob
Horger as early as 1829 and as late as 1835 and to one David F.
Horger from 1840 to 1856 and the estate of D.F. Horger, Aug. 6, 1877. The time element would indicate that it is probable that
David F. was the son of Jacob.

The Leon Co. 1830 Census shows Jacob Horger with his family and no other Horgers--his family included a son of proper age to be David F. Horger, who appeared in the 1840 census as one male 20-30 with no family and with no other listings of Horgers.

Jacob, himself, appears to have disappeared between 1835-40 and quite possibly had died. No further record of him is known.

Additional material on these families is shown on my mimeographed sheets.

My dear Miss Reynolds:

Your letter was redirected by Genealogy and History Washington, D. C.

You are a nice person to try to get the ancestry of the husband of a friend. Yes, I think the families tie in, and that Jacob Horger & Lovisia Shaumlöffel are his ancestors, too.

I can not help you much except to give you the ancestors of the above--one generation.

There were 136 years between the time John U. Giessendanner died (1761) and when Sally published his History in 1897. What a lapse of time so we have to depend upon family records and history. Then Sherman burned the records of Orangeburgh and nothing earlier than 1865 is there.

The name is pronounced as tho it were spelled Hurger, so said Mr. Emory G. Horger. He was president of the Speech Dept. of Texas State College for Women at Denton, Texas about 1940. Maybe he is the one your sister went to school with. I haven't seen his name since then and he may not be there now. He gave his mother's name. I never contacted her.

My great-great grandfather Rev. Jacob Chatstone wrote the history of the family in 1846. He never had it published as far as I know.

I am sending everything that I think would help you. Maybe the U.S. Census would help you from the first 1790 on. I have spent 23 years looking up my ancestors and there is much left to get.

Here is luck to you in your enterprise.

Sincerely,
Mrs. L. T. Fry, Sr.

Horger

Frost & Brumbaugh
Swiss Emigrants

1742 Jan., Feb. Hasle--Buch D. 323/27

Henrich Horger of Oberhasle emigrated to Carolina with his wife and children some years ago. His daughter remained in this country. Barbara requested permission to emigrate and to take her property of 90 crowns. The gov. put no obstacles in her way and instructed the _____ to deduct the taxes due from the capital, moreover, he is to pay strict heed that no other persons, be enticed to emigrate.

The Horger family originally came from the Canton of Zurich. Still has home rights (is "heimaberechtig" in the district of Oberhasle in the commune of Guttannen (1742)). This is the highest commune in the Canton of Bern.

NOTES FROM MRS. FRY

Compare names of Rachel Horger Simpson's children with the names of Jacob & Lovisia Shaumlöffel Horger: 6 of her 11 children have identical names of Jacob & Lovisia's children, Catherine, John, Rachel, Mary, Elizabeth, & David.
